The Heritage Bank Stadium

WILSON, North Carolina –The Heritage Bank has secured its place as the unquestioned leader in community support of the Gillette Athletic Complex in Wilson, which is destined to be an outstanding baseball complex. Sponsorship in the amount of $100,000 of the championship field reserves naming rights of the stadium to be known as The Heritage Bank Stadium and gives the Bank exclusivity as the only Bank advertised inside the championship field.

Wilson Parks and Recreation is confident that this sponsorship is the impetus needed to insure this baseball complex is one of the best in North Carolina.

“It is with pleasure that The Heritage Bank is able to provide support to our communities and it is with pride that this stadium bears the name The Heritage Bank Stadium,” said President and CEO John T. Tilton.

Wholly owned subsidiary of Heritage BancShares, Inc., The Heritage Bank, chartered in 1914, has approximately $260 million in assets. It serves eastern North Carolina with fifteen branches located in Wilson, Johnston, Nash, Wayne and Edgecombe Counties. The Bank is a Member of the FDIC and is an Equal Housing Lender.
